SLUMP IN READING ALMOST CAUSES WALL STREET PANIC

Big Drop in Prices and Leading Issues Are Thrown On the Market by Scared Holders.

(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Jan. 27.—Anxiety over the speculative position in Reading broke the market today and led up to a weak closing with sharp losses in many important stocks.
Gossip has been busy with the growing involvement of this speculation owing to rumored unloading by the pool itself into the venturesome hands of new party to the movement. It was alleged that the holdings for control of the great railroad system even then were being offered in the market to check the wild advance in this stock.

It was current belief that similar conditions existed in Colorado Fuel. Those two stocks and also Brooklyn Transit gave abundant evidence of forced liquidation today. Readings slump reached 6 3/4; Colorado Fuel 5 1/2 and Brooklyn Transit 2 5/8.

Fears of the consequences caused free selling in other quarters and carried the whole list down the Pacific being notably affected. The earlier show of strength in Amalgamated Copper, United States Steel pfd and in other quarters of the list disappeared in the late selling.

Total sales of bonds par value $2,565,000.

WINNERS IN CONTEST.

Local Needleworkers Secure Handsome Prizes.

The art needlework exhibition at Meyers Brothers' department store, which has created a good deal of interest among local needleworkers for several weeks past, came to a successful close yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The judges, Mrs. Alfred Thomas, Mrs. Arthur H. Taylor and Mrs. J. B. Congdon, who had been appointed to decide upon the merits of the work presented in competition, met promptly at that time and, after passing on the exhibits awarded the following prizes:

First prize ($10), Miss Mittie Cofer, of Smithfield.
Second prize ($2), Mrs. E. J. Bailey.
Third prize ($2), Mrs. Koschel.
Fourth prize ($1), Mrs. C. E. Cole.
Fifth prize, ($1), Mrs. J. A. Provost.

Sixth prize ($1), Mrs. W. M. Parker.
Seventh prize ($1), Miss Sadie Beale.
Eighth prize ($1), Mrs. W. R. Jennings.
Ninth prize ($1), Mrs. T. J. Chowning.
Honorable mention: Mrs. A. L. McPherson, Miss Louise Harris and Mrs. J. S. VanArsdale.

There were a score or more of pieces entered in the contest, including some very handsome specimens of the needleworker's art.

A notable feature in connection with the contest is that several of the prize winners are amateurs who have been receiving instructions but a few months in the free embroidery classes which are conducted by Miss Carrie Shelby in the art studios at Meyers Brothers' department store.

G. A. R. MEMBERS ARE ANSWERING ROLL CALL BY THE THOUSANDS

During Last Six Months More Than 28,000 Soldiers Have Heard "Taps" Sounded.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—In the last six months "taps" has been sounded over the graves of 28,000 pensioners of the Confederate war, according to a statement of Pension Commissioner Warner.

This, he says, is an evidence of the rapidly with which the veteran ranks are being diminished. The total number of pensioners on July 1, 1905, was 684,508. On December 31 it was 679,234.

Electrotypothetae Formed.

(Special to the Daily Press.)
NEW YORK, Jan. 27.—It is announced that as a result of the open shop agitation among the employing electrotypers a new association of employers has been organized. This is called the Electrotypothetae and will take in the independent firms which are running open shops, as well as the members of the Typothetae who have electrotyping plants.

Tobacco Workers' Strike.

BETHEL, O., Jan. 27.—The employees of the American Tobacco Company went on a strike for an increase in wages. Their alleged leader, Pearl Franke, was placed under arrest, after a hard fight, for disorderly conduct. More trouble is anticipated.
